INTERPERSONALITIES

Hulo Films

Category: Drama

Producer: Stephen Huszar

Director: Aidin Nakhai

Running Time: 14:06

A dramatic psychological thriller from Saskatoon by production company Hulo Films, Interpersonalities is an intensely interesting film 'that explores the puzzle of Multiple Personality Disorder'.

Interpersonalities is a true visual masterpiece, with absolutely beautiful cinematography. The depth and texture of the shots is paralleled by the story and characters. This film is thought provoking and makes the audience grasp every line to try and piece together the puzzle.

The complexity of the story creates a tense uncertainty for the viewer. Not knowing the difference between what is being perceived by the characters and what is actual reality, this style of filmmaking shows the viewer what it might feel like to have a multiple personality disorder.

After watching the film for the first time I wanted an explanation - I wanted to experience that moment of amazement like after the first time watching the '6th Sense'. Viewing Interpersonalities a second time however, the ending is perfect the way it is. The film leaves the audience wanting to know more, but with a deeper understanding of the characters.

This film is simply stunning in every aspect and will be received well by fans of the genre and enjoyed by all.
